ATTENTION STUDENTS
DO YOU NEED HELP!

The Lewis Library home page serves as a jumping-off point for any academic endeavors.

Here are some helpful Library guides that we've created to assist you:

A Brief Guide to Citing Sources: APA, Chicago, and MLA

Writing and citing your papers in MLA format

Research Skills Tutorial- Formatting citations

Argument essay and persuasive proposal

How to Book a Study Room

Finding journal articles

Career research

DID YOU KNOW?

The Librarians of the Lewis Library are available to assist with any of your library assignments, from the initial stages of topic selection and exploratory research, right through to the creation of your references and works cited page. To book an apt or get further information please send an email to:
ayeager@niagaracc.suny.edu or refdesk@niagaracc.suny.edu

AND

The Lewis Library also provides virtual assistance 24/7 through a cooperative system of librarians. Chat with a librarian now.

DON'T FORGET!

The Academic Center for Excellence offers (in-person and online) academic coaching, tutoring, study groups, and workshops. View a complete list of tutoring availability and/or to make an appointment. ACE is located within the Lewis Library, D-201. If you have any questions or would like assistance with making a tutoring appointment. Email: ace@niagaracc.suny.edu, or call (716) 614-6724
ACE will be open for computer & printing use the following hours:
Monday - Friday 8:00am - 4:00pm

AND

The Online Learning Department provides support, and guidance designed to improve digital learning success. If you need assistance with Brightspace and Online Learning classes, Monday – Friday Hours: 8:00-4:00, Location: D-106 Suite Learning Commons
Schedule an Appointment (in-person, phone, or Zoom), phone: 716-614-6488
Online Live Chat available to receive an immediate response to your questions.
Email: onlinelearning@niagaracc.suny.edu

OR

SUNY Helpdesk, phone: 1-844-673-6786 (Offers Night and Weekend) Hours
Submit a ticket to SUNY Online Support Services